NEGRO KIDNAPPING CASE IS ON TRIAL

Raymond (Preacher) Whitesides, negro who grew up on the streets to become a tough and to embarass the better element of negro citizens, was on trial in District Court here Thursday afternoon for kidnapping.

On the night of June 12th he took John Ed, Williams, 13 months old negro boy from the home of his mother and the baby was found next day in a pasture west of the city.

Officers had developed the fact that Whitesides had taken the baby to another home and shortly before day break took the baby to a pasture and there it was found under some small trees.

The baby's back had been scratched by barbed wire when Whitesides crawled through the fence near the Southern Pacific Railroad.

Negroes generally were interested in the case and crowded the court room.

Whitesides was arrested by City Marshal Smith to whom he confessed having kidnapped the baby.

MILITARY AIRPORT LOST TO CAMERON

Cameron must abandon all immediate hopes of getting a military airport.

A report to the Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday night by John P. Henderson, chairman of the committee and Dr. A. E. Kruse, member, said there is no present indications that Cameron will be named.

This confirms a news story published in The Herald June 19th in which it was said that this area had been rejected.

The committee, it was understood, knew some time ago that Cameron had been rejected, but hoped to keep interest alive by contact with the army authorities.

Cameron was rejected without an inspection and so were hundreds of other communities throughout the the country.

To begin with the proposition did not come from the government. It was largely a matter of exploitation for government contracts. When it became known that airports might be granted every city and town in the country reasonably eligible made application.

UNDERESTIMATED THE POWER OF SOVIET FORCE

Adolph Hitler today said he would let German guns and planes tell the story of what he described as a rout of the Russian armies.

Commentators said it appeared Hitler and the German General Staff may have greatly overestimated their power to deal with Russia. This was especially probable as the Russians were said to be holding the Germans and throwig them back on several fronts with great losses.

The battle was bloody and fierce on the planes of Poland where the Germans seemed to be concentrating.

Hitler was to have made a statement outlining the successes he has attained over Russia. That statement was not made. It was explained the statement may come in hours or days.

Locked in battle along the 2500 mile front both the Red Army and the Nazi were struggling for the mastery.

Russian reports would indicate that at no place had the Germans penetrated the main Russian borders.

Germany claimed to have thrust spear heads of from 100 to 125 miles into the Russian lines.

At Vilna the Russians were reported to have broken through the German lines and isolated the infantry from mechanized columns.

It may be days before anything definite becomes known. The tremendous striking power of the Germans will no doubt make great headway until the full force of the Russians can be brought into the battle.

A noted commentator said that Rudolph Hess, No. 3 Nazi who flew to Scotland had told Winston Churchill that Hitler's proposition was to let England keep all her present territories; that Hitler would attack and take as much of Russia as he wants, then divide France with England. Winston Churchill is said to have communicated this information to Stalin.

A. Cryer of Cameron, F. C. Cryer of Mullin, L. T. Cryer of San Angelo, and E. C. Cryer of Wink, Texas.

RAF STEPING UP BOMBING OF REICH

Nazi Germany and Soviet Russia, two dictators nations, both linked by non-agression pacts with each other, were locked in battle Monday in what was described as the largest military operation in history.

Without warning Adolph Hitler struck at Joseph Stalin's Soviet empire along a 2500 mile front early Sunday. Within a few hours the German troops had advanced into the Soviet Union and the Nazi air force had begun to take a toll of Russian planes.

From Moscow only meager details were available. On the whole, said the Red message, the Russians were holding.

In a message to the German people which was heard throughout the world, Hitler said he had been weighed down with cares and unable to tell the story of what had led up to the attack on Russia.

In these columns some time ago the observation was made that Russia had marched into the Baltic, Poland and Rumania without Hitler's consent and that a reckoning would some day be made.

The attack took the world by surprise.

It was impossible to get any report bearing on what was happening as the Germans threw the might of their full machine against Russia. Beyond the first dispatches which told of terrific air battles and the bombing of Kiev, ancient capital of the Eukraine, Sebastapol on the Black Sea and other points along tre Baltic frontier, there was little to tell of the first day's fighting.

England has pledged aid to Russia. No aid will be given but that is the English policy.

In Washington Sumner Welles, under secretary of State, made a statement in which he said that he could not officially state the goverment's position but substanially this country would welcome any attack from any source on Hitler and the German Reich.

The British have every opportunity now to press their attack. In Libya, General Wavell should have better going if British delay does not overtake him.

The RAF was increasing bombing raids on Germany. The RAF met little opposition which indicated that the major part of the German air force is engaged i Russia.

The wisdom of r's attack on Russia may be estimated only in terms of how the Soviet armies defend themselves.

There was increasing belief after the first shock of battle that Russia had threatened Germany and therefore may have been ready for the attack.

GREETINGS FROM ROTARIANS

Post card greetings reached the publisher Friday from Carroll Wood, newly elected President of the Rotary Club, who is attending the national convention in Denver.

Mose Cox is also attending the convention.

DEMANDS REPARATIONS FOR THE ROBIN MOOR

President Roosevelt sent a two President Roosevelt sent a two thousand word message to Congress shortly after noon Friday denouncing Germany as guilty of piracy on the high seas over the sinking of the Robin Moor and demanded full reparations from Hitler's Reich.

When it was announced in Washington shortly before noon that the President would send a message to Congress, the text of which was not announced, a sensation was created.

The President canceled his press conference Friday. Newspaper men asked Stephen T. Early, secretary to President if the message would deal with relations between the United States and Germany. Mr. Early replied: "It will be on the front pages."

Many thought the President might be considering a more drastic course of action.

Summed up in immediate opinion it was concluded the President has in mind pressing his demands for reparation and a guarantee against future such acts on the part of Germany.

It was almost certain that Germany would not apologise or make any reparations whatever. This incident then would furnish the base for severeance of diplomatic relations and possible declaration of war.

The President is believed to have thought some such developments would result from his message.

The message was an exhaustive denunciation of Germany, it was said. The full text was to be made available to newspapers late in the afternoon.

Will Schiller Takes Own Life Thursday On Farm Near Buckholts; Left Note Asking Forgiveness; Was Known as "One Man Band;" Funeral Friday

Will Schiller, 56, farmer and well known citizen in the Buckholts community, died shortly after 2 o'clock Thursday from a gunshot wound in his forehead, self inflicted.

Justice D. R. Criswell at Buckholts and Murray McCrumin, deputy constable, went to the Schiller home, where Justice Criswell held an inquest.

In the pocket of the dead man a note was found in which he is said to have asked his wife for forgiveness.

Two shots were fired from a 12 gauge shotgun. The body was found in a shed not far from the house. A son went to his father after he heard a shot. His father told him he was only shooting at a hawk. A few moments later he had take his life. One of the hammers from the shotgun was found hear the body where it had fallen after the discharge.

F. V. Schiller, aged father of the dead man, was ill in the home at the time of the shot, but did not hear it. The father is 90 years old. He had not been told of his son's death up to Friday morning.

The discharge from the gun entered Schiller's head between and just above the eyes. Death was instantaneous.

Schiller, a musician, was widely known as "the one man band," playing several instruments at one time. He had been heard many times here at entertainments.

In ill health for months Schiller is believed to have been brooding over his condition. However, he seemed in good spirits on Thursday morning. There was no explanation for his act according to his family.

Funeral services were held at 2:30 p. m. at the Czech-Moravian church in Buckholts with Rev. Barton officiating. Interment was made in Oak Hill Cemetery in Cameron.

He is survived by his widow and two children, one brother, Louis Schiller; two sisters, Mrs. E. L. Kahler of Cameron and Mrs. V. A. Kubecka of Buckholts; a niece, Mrs. E. R. Zellner of Cameron is also among the survivors.

BLACK-DRAUGHT

MUSSOLINI'S FIFTH COLUMN MUST GO

President Roosevelt early Saturday ordered all Italian Consuls out of the country by July 15th.

As in the case of the Germans, ordered out on July 10th, the embassy in Washington was not closed but all Diplomats and all Consuls must go, save ambassador and staff in Washington.

Consulates throughout the United States will be closed.

Precautions were being taken to forestall escape of the Italians to South America countries.

Mexico, most sympathetic and loyal of all the western hemisphere countries with American aims, has already closed a few of the consulates and taken over radio stations. A move to freeze German funds in Mexico was imminent.

Japan is the next on the list for expulsion. Japan is a member of the Axis Alliance and pledged to attack America.

Exports of oil to Japan has been banned from the Atlantic sea board and in no case can oil be exported without license.

JIM FERGUSON SAYS:

"Every day I am asked who I am going to vote for for United States Senator:

"I am going to vote for Governor O'Daniel. I have never voted for him and I ask for the privilege of making a short statement to the people.

"I believe Governor O'Daniel's election as Senator will result in increased federal pensions for the old folks and with said amount matched by State appropriations, old age pensions will finally become a generous benefit. When Governor O'Daniel is elected Senator, as I am sure he will be, we will have a novel and interesting condition.

"Upon his election as Senator, Governor O'Daniel will resign his present position of Governor and he will be sworn in as United States Senator; and under the State Constitution the Hon. Coke Stevenson will resign his present office of Lieutenant Governor and will be inaugurated Governor to fill the vacancy caused by the election of Senator O'Daniel.

"Let me explain some confusion that has arisen about the governor's office. At the election for Senator to be held on June 28th, Governor Stevenson's name will not appear on the ballot. Governor Stevenson will be come Governor by virtue of the vacancy caused by the election of Senator O'Daniel and not by any ballot box election. Therefore, it will be seen that a vote for Governor O'Daniel is also a vote for Governor Stevenson because if Governor O'Daniel is elected by a plurality of all votes cast, a vacancy in the Governor's office occurs which is, under the Constitution, required to be filled by the Lieutenant Governor, which in this case is Coke Stevenson.

"Bearing these facts and law in mind, it will be seen that the election of Governor O'Daniel as Senator and the election of Lieutenant Governor Stevenson as Governor is an absolute certainty. Let us see if this is not correct. In the first primary two years ago Governor O'Daniel was elected over all the candidates, his vote being 645,000. In the runoff Governor Stevenson was elected over his opponent with 446,000 votes.

"Now, dear voters listen. If the friends of Governor O'Daniel that voted for him in the last election vote for him this year, he will certainly be high man, elected again; but to be absolutely sure, it is certain that the friends of Governor Stevenson with 446,000 votes will vote for Senator O'Daniel; then the votes of Stevenson will vote for Senator O'Daniel because Stevenson's name will not be on the ticket and his vote will go to Senator O'Daniel.

"I am sure that the friends of Governor Stevenson will see that it would be folly to throw their votes away if they voted for anyone but O'Daniel because he is the only one whose election would create a vacancy to which Stevenson can succeed.

"To sum up—if the friends of Stevenson add their votes to the votes of O'Daniel it will be more than all the rest of the 26 or 27 candidates combined, and O'Daniel will again win over all like he did last year.

"Having only to get a plurality (high man), it is a certainty that Governor O'Daniel would win by his vote alone, and with the Stevenson vote added it is a double barrel cinch that O'Daniel will be the next Senator, and Coke Stevenson our next Governor."

RAYMOND WHITESIDES INDICTED FOR KIDNAP

Raymond Whitesides, negro, was indicted for kndnapping by a Grand Jury in District Court here Friday.

The offense was committed on the night of June 12th when he took John Ed Williams, a 13 months old baby from his home in the negro section of Cameron and kept the baby all night. Shortly before daybreak Whitesides abandoned the baby in a pasture west of the city.

Sam Allen, another negro, found the baby when he went to the pasture after his horse.

The baby lay under a growth of brush. Its face was cold but officers said it had apparently been placed there only a short time.

Whitesides was arrested by Gene Smith, city marshal. He confessed after telling a number of falsehoods. He first said he took the baby to another negro home. It developed that the man of that home was out searching for the baby. He then told city marshal that he had taken the baby to Sam Allen's home. This was also proven to be false.

In his confession he said he took the baby and walked down the railroad track and later placed it in the pasture. The baby's back was scratched when the negro crawled through a barbed wire fence.

It is the second case of indictment on kidnapping charges within the memory of many here.

Whitesides was said to have tried desperately to get the baby back into the home sometime during the night but was afraid of being detected. He was believed to have become frightend and laid the baby on the ground and left it.

Ida Parker, grand mother of the baby, saw Whitesides leave the house with the baby but could not intercept him.

Whitesides is well known among white business men as "Preacher," his religious excentrics being practiced on the streets. He has been known to "preach a sermon" for 10c.

RAILWAY LABOR UNION DEMANDS WOULD COST 900 Million Dollars A YEAR

THE labor unions have made their demands upon the railways of the United States—and through the railways upon the PUBLIC. These demands are vastly larger in proportion than any they have ever made. The economical and efficient operation of the railways is vital to the nation's defense effort. Therefore, the Western Railways present to the public the following facts:

The labor unions representing engineers, firemen, conductors, brakemen and switchmen are demanding a 30 per cent increase in wages, amounting to 190 million dollars a year—although their present rates of pay are the highest in history.

Other unions representing a greater number of railway employees are demanding wage increases ranging as high as 95 per cent—averaging 47 per cent—and amounting to 580 million dollars a year—although their present rates of pay also are the highest in history.

Thus the wage increases being demanded by the labor unions amount to 770 million dollars a year, an average increase in excess of 41 per cent.

In addition, certain of these labor unions have demanded advances in their pay not included in the above figures, and more rules for the creation of unnecessary jobs.

The situation, then, is this: The total cost of complying with all the demands made would be approximately 900 million dollars a year!

The average weekly earnings of railway employees are now 15 per cent higher than in the peak year 1929, while the cost of living is 12 per cent less.

The demands of the railway labor unions are being made when the entire nation has just been asked to make a supreme effort for National Defense.

The railways cannot meet these demands without a great increase in the cost of transportation. They exceed by more than 700 million dollars the income that the railways had left after paying their annual expenses, taxes and charges in 1940.

The railways have a vitally important job before them. They need all their resources to continue adequately to serve you and contribute effectively toward the National Defense Program.

BOTH SIDES CLAIMING ADVANTAGE IN FIGHTING

Soviet Russia's mighty army had flung back the Germas on a wide front and nowhere have the troops of Hitler reached the Russian border.

That was the statement from Moscow.

The German army is advancing on schedule and the Russian army is being crushed like an egg shell.

That was the statement from Berlin.

As the war raged with unabated fury all along a 2500 mile front there were conflicting claims of successes.

Only fragmentary reports were getting through. No neutral newspaper correspondents were permited with the armies on either side and the radio and press of both countries are under government control.

The Russians claim that around 200 German planes have been shot down. A German statement while not official said that the Germans were playing football with the Russian air force and that Russian flyers are parachuting out and leaving their planes.

Moscow said that the Russians have counter attacked and have thrown back the Germans.

The Russians admit the loss of Brest-Litovsk where the Russian-Germany treaty of 1916 was signed creating the Baltic states and putting an end to the war between the two countries.

Most of the fighting seems to be in progress in Eastern Poland. Further down toward the Black Sea fighting was going on near the Prut River in Rumania.

Adolph Hitler was said to be somewhere on the Eastern front to command his troops.

The German attack was said Tuesday to have grown in intensity; that the Germans are frantically trying to deal a quick blow to the Russians.

Hitler had shown his disregard for the power of the British by involving his vast armies in the Russian campaign.

The RAF was making history. The British were telling another story. They said that nowhere over Germany or France had their airmen encountered any opposition. The British bombers are racing back and forth over the channel at will, blasting away at the invasion ports and ranging far into Germany.

The most systematic and complete devastation of the entire war is being wrought in Germany. The British said that the ruins of Plymouth and London do not compare with what is taking place in Germany now that the RAF is unobstructed.

Turkey has reaffirmed her alliance with Great Britain.

Moscow said that a military and economic pact had been made with Britain and that both countries were pledged to fight to the bitter end against Germany.

There was growing evidence in Washington that the United States would join Britain in extending whatever aid is possible to the Russians.

Finland was said to be restrained by a division in the cabinet. Finland is loyal to the United States.

Finns Evacuating Citizens; War Now Certain Some Think

Although Berlin and Moscow were silent for the third straight day while the world was filled with Rumors of a war between the Soviet and the Reich, events were certainly indicating a vastly disturbed relationship between the countries and a possible war.

Finland was evacuating civilians along the Russian border. The presence of German troops in Finland for several days gives rise to belief that war is on.

The British RAF was heaping destruction throughout Germany, it was said.

The Germans are silent and this means that Hitler will soon strike to end the war, some believed.

England's midget war with France was making little headway.

Wonder Cucumbers On Display at Herald

Cucumbers 15 inches long and no larger than a medium size cucumber from your garden, are raised in Cameron by Frank Burkeen.

Three of these are on display at the Herald office.

They are a new variety for this country. Seed purchased from dealers in Philadelphia cost Mr. Burkeen a half cent each. He has about 15 hills of these in his garden in west Cameron. The hills are producing about two tubs full a day or less.

These cucumbers are known as the improved long green. They resemble giant beans. Small cucumbers on the vines a little larger than a lead pencil are about 9 inches long.

Mr. Burkeen has experimented for years. He once raised a pumpkin 35 inches long, a special variety and has some of these in his garden this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Roberts of Vermont is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Roberts.
